

HALLOWEEN NIGHT

Finally dusk had arrived on Halloween night. The crunchy golden leaves blew in the yard from the cool breeze. Porch lights were on the neighboring houses with candy baskets filled and ready. Jack put on his costume and his mom put on her witch hat. She said, "Are you ready?" Jack ran out the door with his pumpkin treat bag in his hand.

Higher Order Thinking Questions

1. What did you picture for Jack's costume?
2. Why do you think Jack ran out the door when his mom asked if he's ready?
3. What do you think happened next?
4. If you had to change the title for this story, what would it be?
5. What is your favorite Halloween memory?

Structure Words
what	size	color	number	shape	where
movement	mood	background	perspective	when	sound